RESEARCH

Product Overview

Mission

FoxLab is where experiments become records: hypotheses, methods, results, and limitations — not slide-deck theatre.

What it is

Research laboratory practices for reproducible notes, benchmarks, and ADR-linked experiments inside Continuum.

Core Capabilities

- Experiment registration patterns
- Benchmark note structures
- Reproducibility checklists
- ADR cross-linking

Use Cases

- Benchmark notebooks
- Pilot experiment logs
- Method reviews

Technology

Architecture

Experiment registry concepts link to ADRs and product maturity labels so results do not outlive their evidence.

Security Posture

Research data is classified. Private results do not leak through public routes.
